

Vice President

Role and person Specification

Role

- The main role of the VP is to understudy the President in all his activities such that he has sufficient familiarity with the requirements of the role.
- To support and deputize for the President according to need.
- To participate in sub committees so that he has detailed knowledge of the requirements. (e.g. AGM and Dinner committee)
- To mix with members to get their views and questions and to either answer those questions or bring them back to Committee for discussion.
- To provide support, as required, to the Competitions Secretary at golfing days.
- To carry out delegated functions on behalf of the President at golfing days (e.g. arranging the collection of the staff gratuity)

Person Specification

- The qualities to enable him to progress to the role of President in a way which meets meet the full requirements of that role.
- Ideally to have served at least one year on the main Committee.
- Desirably a long-term member of the Society